Nicole Kupchik has been a registered nurse specializing in Critical Care for over 20 years. She graduated nursing school in 1993 from Purdue University. In 2008, she received a Master's Degree in Nursing specializing as a Clinical Nurse Specialist from the University of Washington Seattle.

Nicole worked as a CNS at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle, Washington. She currently works at Harborview Medical Center as a staff nurse and is the founder of Nicole Kupchik Consulting Inc.

Sylvia Wong
PharmD

Sylvia Wong graduated with a BS in Biochemistry and a BA in Economics from the University of Washington. After a short stint in the finance world, she returned to the University of Washington and graduated with a PharmD in 2006. She did a one-year General Practice residency at UW Medicine from 2006-2007 and took a position at Harborview Medical Center as a Clinical Pharmacist on the MICU and Cardiology services, where she continues to practice currently. She is the coordinator for the PGY2 Critical Care Pharmacy Residency at UW Medicine and very much enjoys working with residents and students of all disciplines.
