Nicole Kupchik has been a Critical Care RN for over 20 years. She graduated in 1993 from Purdue University with an Associate Degree in Nursing. In 2002 she received a Baccalaureate degree from the University of Washington, Bothell. In 2008 she received a Master's Degree in Nursing specializing as a Clinical Nurse Specialist from the University of Washington Seattle.

Nicole finds her passion as a nurse educator and arms them with tools to create safe work and practice environments. Her casual style sets the tone for a relaxed, fun & interactive learning environment. She especially enjoys teaching on cardiology & critical care topics. She believes every critical care & progressive care nurse should be certified in their specialty area. Nicole has been teaching certification review courses since 2007. She has helped hundreds of nurses across the country achieve their goals in becoming certified.
