

UW Medicine Presents
Pacific Northwest Sepsis Conference
Sepsis through the continuum of care
Monday June 17, 2019

0700-0800 Registration, Continental Breakfast and Networking		Walker Ames Room- Kane 225
0800-0830 Opening Session	Welcome: Patient Story	Kane 130
0830-0920 General Session	TITLE TBD Emanuel Rivers, Henry Ford Hospital	Kane 130
0920-0950 General Session	Sepsis 101: Sepsis Basics- Laura Evans, Bellevue Hospital Center An Approach to Management of Sepsis in Children - Niranjan "Tex" Kissoon, British Columbia Children's Hospital	Kane 130
0950-1010
Break
1010-1100 General Session Pediatric Keynote	Sepsis Issues from Definition to Discharge Niranjan "Tex" Kissoon, British Columbia Children's Hospital	Kane 130
1100-1210 General Session	Sepsis 201: Sepsis Treatments Moderator: Laura Evans, Bellevue Hospital Center Antimicrobial Rights for Sepsis: Patient, Time, Drug- John Lynch, Harborview Medical Center Riding the wave: What's new and coming in fluid resuscitation?- Nicholas Johnson, Harborview Medical Center Angiotensin Who? Giapreza for Vasodilatory Shock- Elizabeth Levins, Oregon Health Sciences University Steroids for sepsis or septic shock- Simon Finfer, Royal North Shore Hospital of Sydney, Sydney Adventist Hospital I'll believe it when I "Vitamin C" it- David Sweet, Vancouver General Hospital	Kane 130
1210-1300		By George Café
Lunch Provided
1300-1430 Break Out Session 1A Bedside Champions	Sepsis in Oncology: BMT vs Med/ONC, Is There A Difference? Jennifer Graham, St. Luke's Hospital Spreading Early Recognition and Treatment of Sepsis to the Obstetric population Margie Bridges, Overlake Hospital and Medical Center Sepsis With Chronic Comorbid Conditions Laura Quinnan, Northwest Hospital and Medical Center	Kane 210
1300-1430 Break Out Session 1B Sepsis Quality and Leadership	Where are we going and who is leading: The Joint Commission Disease Specific Certification for Sepsis Julie Rogers and Kathy Watts, JPS Health Network Navigating a successful institutional change in sepsis care Mary Cook Sullivan, University of California San Francisco Medical Center GE Project at OHSU- Angela Alday, Oregon Health Sciences University	Kane 130
1300-1430 Break Out Session 1C Pediatrics	Point of Care Ultrasound and the Critically Ill Child: Extrapolating pediatric applications from adult data while using the new "stethoscope" for your eyes Jesse Wenger, Seattle Children's Hospital Delirium in Pediatric Intensive Care Patients Hector Valdivia, Seattle Children's Hospital Early Mobilization in the Pediatric ICU- Francine Won, Seattle Children's Hospital	Kane 220
1430-1455
Break
1455-1555 General Session	Life after Sepsis Hospitalization Post-Sepsis Syndrome- Terri Hough, Harborview Medical Center Natural History of Contemporary, Community-Acquired Pediatric Septic Shock: Results from the LAPSE Investigation Jerry Zimmerman, Harborview Medical Center, Seattle Children's Hospital	Kane 130
1555-1700 General Session	Great debates in sepsis care- Moderator: Emanuel Rivers , Henry Ford Hospital Panel: TBD	Kane 130

The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 14.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

UW Medicine Presents
Pacific Northwest Sepsis Conference
Sepsis through the continuum of care
Tuesday June 18, 2019

0700-0800 Registration, Continental Breakfast and Networking		Walker Ames Room- Kane 225
0800-0850 General Session Keynote Address	Why don't we have any sepsis drugs? Simon Finfer, Royal North Shore Hospital of Sydney, Sydney Adventist Hospital	Kane 130
0850-0940 General Session	Current Questions in Sepsis- What research tells us: Elizabeth Bridges, University of Washington School of Nursing	Kane 130
0940-1000 Break
1000-1030 General Session	SEP-1 Update- Sean Townsend, Sutter Health	Kane 130
1030—1045 Break
1045-1105	Please visit our research posters in Kane 120 or vendors upstairs!
1105-1215 Break Out Session 1A Bedside Champions	Surviving Sepsis Campaign Update- Laura Evans, Bellevue Hospital Center Patient Assessment/Physical Exam in Sepsis- Elizabeth Bridges, University of Washington School of Nursing Antibiotic De-escalation in Sepsis Chloe Bryson-Cahn, Harborview Medical Center	Kane 210
1105-1215 Break Out Session 1B Sepsis Quality and Leadership	SEP-1 Abstractor In-Depth Review- Sean Townsend Sutter Health	Kane 130
1105-1215 Break Out Session 1C Pediatrics	Pediatric Sepsis Case Studies- Reid Farris, Harborview Medical Center, Seattle Children's Hospital	Kane 220
1215-1300 Lunch Provided		By George Café
1300-1320	Please visit our research posters in Kane 120 or our vendors upstairs
1320-1430 Break Out Session 1A Bedside Champions	Mysterious Cases of Lactate- Nicole Kupchik, Nicole Kupchik Consulting NSTI and Sepsis- Sam Mandell, Harborview Medical Center Assessing Volume Status With Ultrasound- Beau Sober, Harborview Medical Center	Kane 130
1320-1430 Break Out Session 1B Sepsis Quality and Leadership	Systemization of a Sepsis Program – It's about the journey, not the destination! Rick Bassett and Susan Haskell, St. Luke's Health System A Sepsis Nurse Program: Bringing experts to the bedside Emily Pinkham, Providence Everett Medical Center Sepsis: Going Beyond the Bundle Courtney Bello Neves, Virginia Mason Medical Center	Kane 210
1320-1430 Break Out Session 1C Research	Research In Sepsis: The Cutting Edge Facilitator: Nick Johnson, Harborview Medical Center Reviewers: Nick Johnson, Jerry Zimmerman, Terri Hough, Kyle Danielson, Rick Janik, Todd Ray, Additional TBD	Kane 220
1430-1450 Break
1450-1545 General Session	A surprise case- David Sweet, Vancouver General Hospital	Kane 130
1545-1700 General Session	Challenging Cases: Panel Discussion- David Carlborn, Harborview Medical Center Panel: TBD	Kane 130

The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 14.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.